Subject: Report of obsolete rules – December 1, 2005

The Board of Examiners for Nursing Home Administrators completes an annual assessment of Minnesota Rules 6400 pertaining to administration of Minnesota nursing homes and finds that current rules are applicable and not deemed obsolete, unnecessary or duplicative for this past year.

The BENHA Rules Committee is currently reviewing all rules and may enter into an extensive rewriting our current rules in 2006. If you have any questions, feel free to contact this office.
