

CHAPTER XXXVII.—AN ACT to provide for laying out a Territorial Road from the foot of Lake Pepin, or Reed's landing, to some point on the Minnesota river between Flint Prairie and the mouth of Blue Earth river.

March 1, 1852.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Minnesota, That Chas. R. Reed, of Reed's landing, Louis Rock, of Wabashaw, and James Wells, of Wells' landing, on Lake Pepin, are hereby appointed commissioners to locate and mark a territorial road, commencing at Reed's landing, or the foot of Lake Pepin, from thence on the most feasible route on the high lands between the tributaries of the Wazisioje river and those of the Mississippi and Cannon rivers, by Okaman Lake, to such point on the Minnesota river as may, in the opinion of said commissioners, be considered the most practicable for the termination of said road.

Commissioners.

SEC. 2. That the said commissioners meet at the house of C. R. Reed, at Reed's landing, on the first Tuesday of June next, at ten o'clock, A. M., or as soon thereafter as practicable: Provided, however, That in the absence of any one of the commissioners appointed by this act, the others may have power to supply said vacancy by appointing another commissioner, or may, in case a majority of them meet, proceed in discharging their duties, and that if shall be left discretionary with a majority of said commissioners, to adjourn from time to time, as they may deem proper; and the commissioners, when assembled, shall proceed to lay out and mark said road in accordance with the provisions of law, in such cases made and provided: Provided, That this act shall not take effect unless the late Sioux treaty be ratified by Congress at its present session.

Their duties.
