The Marshal shall keep a record of the lots or tracts sold, the name of the purchaser, the date of sale, and the amount received for taxes and charges respectively, the time when, by whom, and for what amount the same was redeemed, and the time and to whom the same was conveyed, if not redeemed. And the City Council shall, in addition to the tax for the current year, lay such tax upon such lot or tract of land, as the same would have been chargeable with had not the same been so omitted, and such tax shall be collected as other taxes or assessments for the current year. All lands shall be subject to taxes that may have been omitted, in whatsoever hands they may have come. Should any tax or assessment upon any lot or parcel of land be set aside, or declared void, by reason of any defect or informality in the assessing, buying, selling and conveying the same, or other matter, but not affecting the equity or justice of the tax itself, the City Council shall cause the tax for assessment so set aside or declared void, to be re-levied, in such manner as they shall by ordinance direct: Provided, That if the defect was in the assessment, the same shall be again assessed at such time as the City Council may direct; and the said tax assessment so re-assessed or re-levied shall be and continue a lien upon said tract or lot, and shall be collected as other taxes or assessments are collected under this act.

Evidence

SEC. 20. All the instructions and directions herein given for the assessing of lands and personal property, and the levying and collecting of taxes and assessments, shall be deemed only directory, and no error or informality in the proceedings of any of the officers entrusted with the same, and not affecting the substantial justice of the tax itself, shall vitiate or in anywise affect the validity of the tax or assessment, or of the title conveyed under any sale for taxes under this chapter.
