

thereof, and order their proceedings therein to be recorded by the Clerk with the records of said Court, and with the Register of Deeds of the county in which said city, or town, or addition is situated; Provided That in altering or vacating a part of any city, or town, or addition, no street or alley shall be vacated, except so far as the same lie between blocks or lots which are at the same time vacated by the Court; and in no case shall any street or alley be closed which connects any two portions of said city, or town, or addition, which are not at the same time vacated; Provided, further, That if upon the hearing of said application by the said Court, any objection is made by any person or persons owning or occupying contiguous land, and whose interest will be injuriously affected by such proposed vacation, the Court shall hear them, and decide as in their judgment they deem right and proper.

SEC. 4 This Act shall take effect thirty days after its passage.

AMOS COGGSWELL

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

IGNATIUS DONNELLY,

President of the Senate.

Approved February third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

ALEX. RAMSEY.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, MINNESOTA, }

February 3rd, 1860. }

I hereby certify the foregoing to be a true copy of the original on file in this office.

J. H. BAKER, Secretary of State.

CHAPTER LXIX.

An Act regulating Costs in Civil Actions.

- SECTION 1. Costs other than actual charges and disbursements in civil actions abolished.
2. Charges heretofore allowed by Statutes to continue to be allowed.
3. Repeal of Statutes authorizing courts to impose costs.
4. Repeal of conflicting Statutes.
5. Act to take effect on passage.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Costs abolished

SECTION 1. That from and after this date, no costs other than actual charges and disbursements shall be allowed or taxed in any bill of costs in any civil action or special proceeding, or in the foreclosure of mortgages by advertisement, and all sums heretofore allowed in such cases by way of indemnity, are hereby abolished; Provided, That the provision of this act shall not affect any costs that have already accrued.

Charges sanctioned by the Statutes allowed

SEC. 2. Charges or disbursements in civil actions, special proceedings, and in the foreclosure of mortgages, shall be allowed hereafter, whenever the same would have been allowed by the Statutes heretofore in force, and nothing in this Act shall in any manner affect the allowance of such charges or disbursements.

Revised Statutes repealed

SEC. 3. So much of Sections eighty-nine (89) and ninety (90) of Chapter sixty (60) on page five hundred and forty-four (544) of the Compiled Statutes, as authorizes Courts to impose terms or costs, is hereby repealed; nor shall any costs hereafter be allowed in any Court on motions.

SEC. 4. Section seven (7) and so much of Sections eleven (11) and twelve and (12) of Chapter seventy-two (72) of the Revised Statutes as is inconsistent with this Act, and all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

AMOS COGGSWELL,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

IGNATIUS DONNELLY,

President of the Senate.

Approved, March eighth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

ALEX. RAMSEY.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, MINNESOTA, }

March 8th, 1860.

I hereby certify the foregoing to be a true copy of the original on file in this office.

J. H. BAKER, Secretary of State.

CHAPTER LXX.

An Act to authorize and regulate Garnishee Proceedings.

SECTION 1. When summons shall be issued.