

CHAPTER LXXVI.

An Act to open Seventh Street, in the City of St. Paul, from St. Peter Street to a connection with Fort Street.

- SECTION 1. Commissioners appointed—width of said street.
 2. Time and place of meeting of said board—vacancies, how filled.
 3. Rules for the government of said board.
 4. Act, when to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. Nathaniel McLean, Parker Paine, and Wilson C. Morrison, are hereby appointed commissioners, to lay out and open and extend seventh street, from the west side of St. Peter street to a connection with Fort Street, at or near the Winslow House in said city, which extension of street aforesaid, shall be at least sixty-six feet wide.

SEC. 2. Said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall meet on the first Monday of April next, at the city hall of said city, for the purpose of organizing, and proceeding to lay out and open said extension, Provided, If any of said commissioners, from any cause fail to act, it is hereby made the duty of the Mayor of said city to fill such vacancy.

SEC. 3. Said commissioners, at the time of their meeting as aforesaid, and until the said extension of seventh street aforesaid is laid out and opened, and the benefits and damages assessed, the said commissioners shall act in accordance with chapter six of the city charter of the said city of St. Paul, which chapter is hereby made, as far as applicable, a part of this Act; Provided, That the report of said commissioners shall be final.

SEC. 4. This Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 12th, A. D. 1861.