

CHAPTER XVI.

An Act Requiring District Judges to adopt General Rules of Practice in Civil Actions for the Several District Courts.

- SECTION 1. When judges to meet for the adoption of such general rules of practice—where.
2. Act, when to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

SECTION 1. The judges of the district courts of the several judicial districts of the State shall, on the first Wednesday of July next, or on some day prior thereto at their election, meet in general session at the capitol, in the city of Saint Paul, and adopt such general rules of practice in civil actions not inconsistent with the laws of the State, as will secure a uniformity of practice throughout the State, and as may be deemed necessary and just. The said judges shall meet annually thereafter at the same place on the first Wednesday of July, to revise such general rules, and make such amendments thereto and such further rules, not inconsistent with the laws of the State, as may be deemed necessary. The general rules so made shall govern the said district courts, in any case in furtherance of justice, and on such terms as may be just to relax or modify the same or relieve a party against the effect thereof.

Where and when judges to meet for the adoption of
