CHAPTER XCII.

An Act for the Relief of James D. Williams.

- SECTION 1. Duty of commissioners of the counties of Dakota and Ramsey.
2. Act, when to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That the county commissioners of the county of Ramsey, and of the county of Dakota, respectively, be and they are hereby authorized to examine into the amount of work done in their respective counties, by James D. Williams, in opening and grading of the public road in said counties respectively, leading to the ferry on the Mississippi river above the city of St. Paul, known as Williams' ferry, and if the commissioners of the county of Dakota, shall find that the road opened and graded by said Williams leading to said ferry, in the county of Dakota, is a public convenience and thoroughfare, and if a majority of said county commissioners, in regular session, decide that the county shall pay for said grading, they are hereby authorized to issue bonds of the county of Dakota, payable to the said James D. Williams, with interest payable semi-annually, at the rate of seven per cent. per annum, for such sums as the commissioners may deem just and equitable; and if the commissioners of the county of Ramsey shall find that the road opened and graded by said Williams, leading to said ferry in the county of Ramsey is a public convenience and thoroughfare, and if a majority of said commissioners, in regular session, decide that the county shall pay for said grading, they are hereby authorized to issue bonds of the county of Ramsey, payable to the said James D. Williams, with interest, payable semi-annually, at the rate of seven per cent. per annum, for such sums as the commissioners may deem just and equitable, and the certificates issued by said counties for the payment of the interest on said bonds shall be receivable for county taxes, in the counties in which they were issued.

Duty of commissioners of Dakota and Ramsey counties.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 8th, 1862.
