NUMBER III.

Joint Resolution of the Legislature of the State of Minnesota.

In regard to the bravery and daring of the soldiers of the First and Fourth regiments

Whereas, The painful intelligence has been received of the severe loss in killed and wounded in the First Regiment of Minnesota Volunteers, during the recent bloody battles on the Potomac, and the loss sustained by the Fourth Regiment, at Iuka, in the State of Mississippi; and, whereas, it appears that the noble bearing of the officers and men composing said Regiments, has added new lustre to the fame of the sons of Minnesota, for courage, skill and military discipline, therefore,

Resolved, 1st, by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota,

That we view with State pride and admiration the bravery and noble daring of our sons whether in covering retreats, or in facing the bullets and glittering steel of our persistent foes.

Resolved, 2d, That while our deepest sympathies are
