

Minnesota, in protecting our people against the Sioux Indians, as adjusted and allowed by the several Boards of State Auditors, constituted for that purpose by the Legislature, the sum of two hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury that may be received from any appropriation made by the Congress of the United States, to reimburse the State of Minnesota, for expenses incurred by the State in defending the people against the Sioux Indians. Appropriation for paying the claims for services rendered and materials furnished for protection against the Sioux Indians

Provided, That no warrant shall be drawn by the State Auditor on the appropriation herein made, until there be money in the treasury from the United States, as aforesaid, to pay the same.

And after the present Board of State Auditors shall have completed the adjustment of claims, the State Auditor, in case the money appropriated by the United States shall be insufficient to pay the whole amount of such claims which shall then be audited and unpaid, shall issue his warrants upon the Treasurer for the amount of such money pro rata, upon such audited claims.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved, March 6, 1863.
