

CHAPTER LXXXVI.

An Act to amend an act entitled "an act to incorporate the Baldwin School in the City of Saint Paul, approved February twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and fifty-three," and also to authorize the Board of Trustees of the College of St. Paul to transfer and convey its property and franchises to the same.

SECTION 1. Name and style of said corporation—Board of Trustees.

2. The object of said institution.

3. Power of Board of Trustees.

4. Duty of President and Secretary of the Board of Trustees of the College of Saint Paul.

5. May establish an Academic Department—when President of the University may be appointed.

6. When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

SECTION 1. That the word "school," whenever the same appears in said act, is changed to "university," and the said institution shall hereafter be known by the name of the "Baldwin University," and the following-named persons, being the present trustees of the Baldwin School, viz.: Alexander Ramsey, Edward D. Neill, Henry F. Masterson, Henry L. Moss, John Mattocks, and also Henry J. Horn, D. W. Ingersoll, Henry M. Knox and Frederick A. Noble, and their successors in office, shall be known as the "Trustees of the Baldwin University," which shall be the name and style of said corporation, and shall succeed to all the rights, powers and liabilities specified in the act to which this is an amendment.

SEC. 2. Section two of said act is amended, so as to read as follows :

Section 2. The object of the institution shall be to afford instruction in English literature, in ancient and modern languages, in moral and mental philosophy, in history and political economy, in mathematics and the natural sciences, and in the application of science to arts, agriculture and the professions.

Name and style of said corporation—
board of trustees

The object of said
institution

SEC. 3. Section six of said act is amended, so as to read as follows :

Section 6. The trustees of the Baldwin University shall have power to purchase, hold, and sell real or personal estate, to enact by-laws for the government and regulation of said university, to elect and employ a president, professors and such other teachers, officers and committees as the management of the university and its funds may require, to define their duties, and to determine the amount of their respective salaries.

Power of board of trustees

SEC. 4. The president and secretary of the board of trustees of the College of St. Paul are hereby authorized and empowered to execute and convey, in the ordinary form of conveyance, to the "trustees of the Baldwin University," all of the estate, real and personal, franchises, rights and privileges of the said corporation whenever the said trustees of the College of St. Paul, shall, by a resolution, authorize such conveyance and transfer. Provided, That upon the acceptance of such conveyance and transfer by the trustees of the Baldwin University, they shall become responsible and liable for all the debts and obligations incurred by the trustees of the college of St. Paul. Such conveyances and transfer shall operate, to vest in said Baldwin University all the estate, real and personal, franchises, rights, and privileges heretofore and now belonging to the trustees of the College of St. Paul, and upon the recording of said conveyance the board of trustees of the College of St. Paul shall cease to have any corporate existence.

Duty of president and secretary of the board of trustees of the College of St. Paul SEC. 5. There shall be established an academic department in said university which shall be known as the "Baldwin Grammar School," and may be opened at any time the trustees may deem proper, and a rector thereof appointed; but the higher department shall not be opened until two professorships are endowed. The president of the university may be appointed, whenever, in the judgment of the trustees, the interest of the institution may require.

May establish an academic department—when president may be appointed

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved March 3, 1864.
