

CHAPTER XLVII.

March 1, 1866.

An Act to define the boundary lines of McPhaill county and attach the same to Redwood county for judicial purposes.

SECTION 1. Establishes boundary lines of McPhaill county.

2. Duties of officers of the county of Redwood.

3. County officers to canvass votes within certain time: to make proclamation in newspaper.

4. When Act to take effect.

5. Repeals all acts conflicting with this act.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. The boundary line of McPhaill county is hereby established, and hereafter shall be as follows:

Boundary line of McPhaill county.

Beginning at the intersection of the middle line of the Minnesota river and the range line between ranges thirty-nine and forty, thence in a northwesterly direction on the middle line of the main channel of the Minnesota river to the western boundary line of the State of Minnesota, thence in a southerly direction on the boundary line of the State, to the township line between township one hundred and eight and one hundred and nine, thence east on said line to the range line between ranges thirty-nine and forty, thence north on said line to the place of beginning.

County officers of Redwood to give notice of election

SEC 2. At the time of giving notice of the next general election, [it] shall be the duty of the officers of the county of Redwood, required by law to give notice of such election, to give notice in like manner, that at said election a vote will be taken on the question of changing the boundary lines of Redwood county in accordance with the provisions of this act. At said election the voters of said county of Redwood in favor of the change proposed by this act, shall have distinctly written or printed on their ballots, "for change of boundary lines of Redwood county," and those opposed to said change, "against change of boundary lines of Redwood county," and returns thereof shall be made to the same officer by the judges of election of the several townships as votes for State officers.

SEC. 3. The county officers to whom the returns are made in said county, shall within twenty days after said election, canvass the votes returned for and against the change of boundary lines, and shall forthwith certify the result of such canvass to the Governor, who, if it appears that a majority of the votes in the said county of Redwood on the question of changing the boundary lines are in favor of such change, shall make proclamation thereof by causing to be published in a newspaper in said county of Redwood that the change proposed by this act has been ratified and adopted by the majority of the electors of said county.

Votes to be canvassed within certain time.

SEC. 4. The foregoing provisions of this act shall take effect and be in force from and after the ratification and adoption of the proposed change by a majority of the voters of Redwood county.

When provisions to go into effect.

SEC. 5. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

Repeals inconsistent acts.

Approved March 1, 1866.
