Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Change of time

SECTION 1. The general term of the district court in and for the county of Dakota, in the first judicial district, shall be held at the court house, in said county, as follows: On the first Tuesday in March, and the fourth Tuesday in September, in each year.

And the general term of the district court, in the county of Olmsted, in the third judicial district, shall be held on the second Monday in March, and the first Monday in October in each year.

And the general term of the district court of the county of Houston, in the third judicial district, shall be held in said county, on the first Tuesday after the third Monday of October, in each year.

When process returnable

SEC. 2. All process or proceeding issued, had, or done, or to be done, for the term of court, in Dakota county, in January, shall be returnable in the term in March, and be as valid and binding, and the said proceeding had, and penalties imposed, as well as all returns made, as it could have been in January.

When returnable

SEC. 3. All process or proceeding issued, had, or done, for the term of court in Olmsted county, for the fourth Monday of April, shall be returnable to the second Monday of March, 1867, and be as valid and binding, and all penalties and fines, and judgments imposed, have the same legality and effect, as though the term had not been changed.

Houston county, when process returnable

SEC. 4. All process or proceeding issued, had, or done, or to be done, for the term of court in Houston county, for the first Tuesday after the third Monday in May, 1867, shall be returnable to the term held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of May, 1867, and be as valid and binding, in every respect, as though the term had not been changed.

SEC. 5. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved January 15, 1867.
