

CHAPTER LXXV.

An Act to legalize instruments and conveyances heretofore made, and to provide for the recording of the same.

February 21 '67

SECTION 1.—Powers of attorney and other instruments regulating conveyance of real estate legalized.

2.—Records, etc., to have same effect as if previously recorded.

3.—When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That powers of attorney, and all other instruments authorizing or relating to the conveyance of real estate, or any interest therein, within the limits of this state, heretofore made and executed out of this state, and acknowledged before an officer having an official seal, but not having a certificate of the official character of such officer, and of the due execution and acknowledgment thereof, according to the law of the place where executed, attached thereto by the proper certifying officer, as required by law, shall be entitled to record with the same effect from the time of the passage of this act as if such certificate in due form was attached.

Legalizes certain instruments

SEC. 2. The records of all such powers of attorney, and other instruments heretofore recorded, shall, from the time of the passage of this act, have the same force and effect as if the same were recorded anew under the provisions of section one of this act.

Record to have same effect, etc.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 21, 1867.
