CHAPTER XLVIII.

March 7, 1867

An Act to authorize the village of Mantorville to issue bonds to aid in the construction of a railroad to said village.

SECTION 1.—Authorizes corporate authorities to issue bonds.

2.—Amount of bonds—rate of interest—how signed—who payable to.

3.—Amount and size of bonds to be determined by vote of electors, etc.

4.—Corporate authorities to levy tax to pay principal and interest.

5.—When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

May issue bonds

SECTION 1. The corporate authorities of the village of Mantorville, in the county of Dodge, are hereby authorized to issue bonds at any time before January 1st, 1870, in such amount as may be designated and determined by the legal voters of said village, to aid in the construction of a railroad to said village of Mantorville.

SEC. 2. Said bonds shall be issued in sums of not less than one hundred dollars each, and may bear interest at a rate not exceeding ten per cent. per annum. They shall be signed by the president and countersigned by the recorder of said village, and the principal and interest, as they become due, shall be payable to the person or corporation to whom they shall be issued, (or drawn,) on presentation to the treasurer of said village.

Bonds—how issued

SEC. 3. The electors of said village, at any annual or special meeting thereof, or election, prior to January 1st, 1870, may, by a vote of a majority of the legal voters of said village, present and voting, fix the amount and size of bonds to be issued by said corporate authorities, the rate of interest, the date or dates of payment, and the terms and conditions upon which said bonds shall be issued. Notice of such election or meeting shall be given by the corporate authorities of said village by posting in three of the most public places in said village, and publishing in a newspaper printed in said village, at least twenty days before the time fixed for holding such election, or meeting, a notice stating the object of such election or meeting, and the time and place of holding the same.

Amount and size of bonds—how fixed

SEC. 4. For the purpose of paying the principal and interest of such bonds, it is made the duty of the corporate authorities of said village, from year to year, as the same falls due, to levy taxes upon the taxable property of said village sufficient to meet the same, and return the same to the county auditor, whose duty it shall be to extend the same upon the proper tax rolls, and they shall be collected in like manner as other taxes, and paid over to the treasurer of said village to be by him applied to the payment of the aforesaid principal and interest.

May levy tax

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 7, 1867.
