SECTION 1. Amendment to Section 20 of Chapter 2 of Special Laws of 1864. To whom duly authorized persons may make payment of damages assessed.

2. When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section twenty (20) of an act entitled "an act to amend an act entitled an act to facilitate the construction of the Minneapolis and Cedar Valley Railroad and to amend and continue certain acts in relation thereto," is amended by adding the following to the end thereof. Upon the filing of the report of said commissioners the petitioners or any officers of or other person duly appointed by said corporation, may make payment of the damages assessed to parties entitled to the same except as herein otherwise provided.

First. To parties laboring under no disability.

Second. To guardians of infants, husbands or trustees of femmes covert.

Third. To guardians of insane persons, idiots, lunatics and persons under other disability, and receipts for such payments duly acknowledged before any person authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds and filed in the office of the clerk aforesaid, shall estop the parties giving them and their principals when they act in a representative capacity, from all further claims or proceedings in the premises, and upon the filing of said receipts the clerk shall enter satisfaction of any judgment which may have been or shall be entered in the premises as against said company. Payments to parties residing in the state but not in the county or counties through which said road runs as well as to infants, insane persons and other persons under disability who have no guardians, and payments to parties residing out of the state, and to persons whose names are unknown, and to persons who refuse to receive payments when tendered, shall be made by depositing the same with the clerk of said court to be paid out under the direction of the judge thereof, and such deposits shall have the same effect as the first mentioned receipts unless an appeal is taken by the party entitled thereto, and all payments made under proceedings commenced under said act prior to the passage of this amendment, may be made as herein prescribed.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.
