  5. How to proceed if a majority of votes are cast against said ordinance—how to proceed if the majority is in favor of ordinance.
  6. Tax to be levied to pay principal and interest.
  7. When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Wabasha to issue bonds—in what amount—for what purpose.

SECTION 1. That the city of Wabasha, in the county of Wabasha, state of Minnesota, is hereby authorized to create and issue at any time prior to the first day of January, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in manner provided by this act, the bonds of said city, with coupons attached, in amounts not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, for the purpose of encouraging and granting aid to the manufacturing interests of said city.

Denomination of bonds—rate of int. rest—when payable.

SEC. 2. Such bonds shall be in sums not less than twenty-five dollars each, and may bear interest specified therein, not exceeding the rate of seven per cent. per annum, the principal and interest to be payable at such time or times not exceeding twelve years from and after the date of such bonds as the city council of said city shall by ordinance designate, and the said city council is hereby authorized to provide for, and determine by ordinance, not repugnant to any of the provisions of this act, the terms, time, manner and conditions of the issuing of such bonds.

SEC. 3. All ordinances passed by such city council under authority of this act, shall be published at least two successive weeks in the regular issue of the newspaper published in said city, and shall thereafter be submitted to the qualified voters of said city for approval or disapproval at any general election; or said city council may order a special election therefor, by giving thirty days notice thereof prior to the day of such election. Notices of such special election shall be given in the same manner as notices of general elections of said city, and shall specify particularly the object for which such election is ordered, and such special election shall be conducted in the same manner prescribed by law for conducting elections for city officers of said city.

Ordinances to be published—submitted to voters—election how conducted.

SEC. 4. All electors voting at any election in favor of any such ordinance, shall vote by ballots having distinctly written or printed or partly written and partly printed thereon the words "Ordinance in aid of the manufacturing interests of Wabasha aid, Yes." And electors voting at any such election against the same, shall vote by ballots having distinctly written or printed or partly written and partly printed thereon the words "Ordinance in aid of the manufacturing interests of Wabasha aid, No."

Ballots, how prepared.

SEC. 5. If a majority of the votes cast at any such election shall be in favor of any such ordinance so submitted, the same shall be published in the same manner as other city ordinances of said city are by law published, and be ordered by the said city council to take effect and be in force from and after such publication thereof, and the same shall thereupon take effect and be in force accordingly. But if a majority of the votes cast at such election be against such ordinance, then the ordinance so submitted shall be null and void. Provided, however, That the said city council may again and in like manner submit any other ordinance for the same object as the one so voted against by a majority of electors at any time within the period so limited for the issuing of any such bonds, and the result of the election shall have the same force and effect as though it had been the first election for that purpose.

If majority vote against, said ordinance to be void, but if majority favor it shall be binding.

SEC. 6. In case any bonds shall at any time be issued under the authority of this act, then and in such case, taxes upon the taxable property in said city may from time to time as shall become necessary, be levied and collected to pay the maturing principal and interest on said bonds, which taxes shall be levied and collected in the same manner as other city taxes in and for said city are by law required to be levied and collected. And the proceeds of all taxes authorized by this act, shall be paid over to the city treasurer of said city, to be by him applied in payment of the principal and interest of said bonds, and for no other purpose whatever.

To levy a tax—for what purpose.

When act to take effect.

SEC. 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the governor.

Approved January 22, 1869.
