

CHAPTER XCIV.

An Act to amend Section eleven of Chapter sixty-one of the General Statutes, relating to making and recording marriage certificates. March 6, 1871.

SECTION 1. Amendment to Section eleven (11), Chapter sixty-one (61), General Statutes.
Record to be made and certificate delivered to Clerk of Court—certificate to be recorded.

2. When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. Section eleven of chapter sixty-one of the general statutes is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 11. Every person solemnizing a marriage shall make a certificate under his hand, containing the particulars specified in the next preceding section, and shall deliver the same to the clerk of the district court in the same county where the license was issued, and a duplicate with the clerk in the county where the marriage was solemnized, which certificate shall be filed and recorded by said clerk in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and said clerk shall be entitled to receive the sum of twenty-five cents for recording said duplicate certificate, from the person offering the same for record.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after August first, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one.

Approved March 6, 1871.
