CHAPTER I.

AN ACT PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO SECTION FOUR OF ARTICLE SIX OF THE CONSTITUTION, RELATING TO THE JUDICIARY.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. The following amendment to the constitution is hereby proposed for publication and approval or rejection by the people, in accordance with section one of article fourteen of the constitution, that is to say, that section four of article six of the constitution be amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 4. The state shall be divided by the legislature into judicial districts, which shall be composed of contiguous territory, be bounded by county lines, and contain a population as nearly equal as may be practicable. In each judicial district one or more judges, as the legislature may prescribe, shall be elected by the electors thereof, whose term of office shall be seven years, and each of said judges shall severally have and exercise the powers of the court under such limitations as may be prescribed by law. Every district judge shall at the time of his election be a resident of the district for which he shall be elected, and shall reside therein during his continuance in office. In case any court of common pleas heretofore established shall be abolished, the judge of such court may be constituted by the legislature one of the judges of the district court of the district wherein such court has been so established for a period not exceeding the unexpired term for which he was elected.
