governor. All the provisions of this section, in relation to bills not approved by the governor, shall apply in cases in which he shall withhold his approval from any item or items contained in a bill appropriating money.

SEC. 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the people for their approval or rejection at the next general election occurring after this act shall take effect, and each of the legal voters of the state, in their respective districts, may at such election vote by ballot for or against such amendment, and returns thereof shall be made and certified, and such votes canvassed and the result thereof declared in manner provided by law for returning, certifying and canvassing votes at general elections for state officers, and declaring the result thereof. And if it shall appear therefrom that a majority of voters present and voting at such election shall have ratified such amendment, then, within ten days after that result shall have been ascertained and declared, the governor shall make proclamation thereof, and such amendment shall therefrom take force and effect, and be in force as a part of the constitution.

SEC. 3. The voters voting in favor of such amendment at such election, shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed upon their ballots at said election, the following words: "Amendment to section eleven, article four of the constitution, "yes;" and the ballots used at such election by those voting against such amendment, shall have written or printed or partly written and partly printed thereon, the following words: "Amendment to section eleven, article four of the constitution, "no."

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 11, 1876.

CHAPTER II.

AN ACT PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO SECTION THREE OF ARTICLE TEN OF THE CONSTITUTION, RELATING TO CORPORATIONS.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. The following amendment to the constitution is hereby proposed for publication, and approval or rejection by the people, in accordance with section one of article fourteen of the constitution; that is to say, that section three of article ten of the constitution be amended so as to read as follows:
"Sec. 3. Each stockholder in any corporation shall be liable only for all unpaid installments on stock owned by him, or transferred for the purpose of defrauding creditors."

Sec. 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the people for their approval or rejection at the general election for the year one thousand eight and seventy-six, and each of the legal voters of the state in their respective districts may at such election vote by ballot for or against such amendment, and the returns thereof shall be made and certified and such votes canvassed, and the result thereof declared in manner provided by law for returning, certifying and canvassing votes at general elections for state officers and declaring the result thereof; and if it shall appear therefrom that a majority of voters present and voting at such election upon such amendment, have voted in favor of the same, then within three days after that result shall have been ascertained and declared, the governor shall make proclamation thereof, and such amendment shall thereupon take effect and be in force as a part of the constitution.

Sec. 3. The voters voting in favor of such amendment, at said election, shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, upon their ballots, at said election, the following words: "Amendment to section three, article ten, of the constitution, relating to corporations, "Yes;" and the ballots used at said election by those voting against such amendment shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed thereon, the following words: "Amendment to section three, article ten of the constitution, relating to corporations, "No."

Sec. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and approval.

Approved February 25, 1876.

CHAPTER III.

AN ACT PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO SECTION THREE (3), ARTICLE SIX (6), OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. That an amendment be proposed to the constitution of the State of Minnesota, as follows, to-wit: "That there be added at the end of section 3, article 6, the following words, viz.: "Whenever all or a majority of the judges of the supreme court shall, from any cause, be disqualified from sitting in any case in the said court, the governor, or, if he shall be interested..."
