CHAPTER 35.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE SPECIAL LAWS OF ONE THOUSAND-EIGHT HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-SEVEN (1877), RELATING TO THE VILLAGE OF MORRISTOWN.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section twenty-five (25) of chapter three (3) of the special laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven (1877), is hereby amended to read as follows:

All property, real and personal, in the village, except such as may be exempt by the laws of the state, or is village property, shall be subject to taxation not exceeding two and one half (2½) mills on the dollar for general purposes. Such property shall also be liable to special taxes not exceeding five (5) mills on the dollar for any one year, except the same shall have been voted at a general or special election of said village, the notice of which election, stating the purposes of such special tax and the object of the same, shall have been published at least ten (10) days previous to such election in three (3) of the most public places in said village.

SEC. 2. Section thirty-three (33) of said chapter is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 33. The president and councilmen may receive from the village treasury the usual fees allowed supervisors of towns for the time consumed in holding elections, and such other fees as they may deem reasonable; Provided, that their pay shall not exceed twelve dollars ($12) each in any one year. The fees of the recorder shall be for such duties as usually devolve upon the town clerk the same as now received by said town clerk, and for the additional duties that may be imposed upon him by this charter and by the common council. He shall receive such compensation as may be allowed by the common council, in no case to exceed the sum of seventy dollars ($70) per year. The fees of the village assessor and treasurer shall be as prescribed by general statutes for similar offices in townships.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 7, 1878.
