CHAPTER 126.

AN ACT to amend chapter eighty-four (84) of the Special Laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five (1875), entitled an act to provide fishways on the Zumbro river, between its mouth and Oronoco village and the city of Rochester.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section one (1) of chapter eighty-four (84) of the Special Laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-five (1875) be so amended as to read as follows: "That all persons now owning or having dams or obstructions (or who may hereafter build dams or obstructions) across the Zumbro river, anywhere between the mouth of said river and the village of Pine Island and the city of Rochester, shall, under the penalties hereinafter provided, construct fish-ways as described in section two (2) of this act, by means of which fish can pass or ascend from the waters below said dam or obstruction to the waters above, and shall keep said fish-ways in good repair, that they may be available for the purpose intended."

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 4, 1881.
