CHAPTER 231.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE AND LEGALIZE THE ORGANIZATION OF CERTAIN VILLAGES.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That all villages heretofore declared or adjudged to be incorporated villages by any order or judgment of any of the district courts of this state, under chapter seventy-three (73) of the general laws of A. D. one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three (1883), entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation of villages and to define their duties and powers, and to repeal certain laws in relation thereto," be and they are hereby duly incorporated as villages, with the same territorial boundaries specified in the order or judgment of the district court, declaring any such village to be an incorporated village under the provisions of said act, and all such villages shall possess and are hereby endowed with all the franchises, rights, powers and privileges, and subject to the duties in said act enumerated and contemplated; and all officers of any such village, and all persons acting as officers of any such village, shall continue to occupy their respective offices, and in like manner as if the said act had been constitutional and valid, and as if the court declaring or adjudging any such village or villages incorporated had been legally empowered so to do; and all official acts of all persons heretofore acting as officers of any such village are hereby legalized and declared to be of the same force and validity as if such village or villages had been duly organized and incorporated from the date of the entry of the judgment or filing of the order of the district court purporting to incorporate any such village under said act.
