CHAPTER 222.

AN ACT TO LEGALIZE THE VOTE UPON AND AUTHORIZE THE ISSUANCE OF CERTAIN BONDS OF THE CITY OF ST. CLOUD, TO AID IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF A DAM ACROSS THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER AT SAID PLACE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. Whereas, by virtue of the provisions of chapter one hundred and thirty-eight (138) of the special laws of the state of Minnesota, for the year A. D. one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine (1879), the common council of the city of St. Cloud was and is authorized and empowered to issue the bonds of said city in the sum of fifty thousand (50,000) dollars, for the purpose of aiding in the construction of a dam across the Mississippi river at St. Cloud, and otherwise improving the water power of said river at said city of St. Cloud, under the conditions and provisions set forth in said act, among which was that before it should be lawful for said common council to issue any of said bonds by said act authorized, the proposition to issue the same should be submitted to the legal voters of said city for their approval or rejection at the next annual city election after the passage of said act; and if it was found upon a canvass of the votes cast that a majority of the voters present and voting on said proposition at said election voted in favor of such proposition, then the issue of such bonds should be lawful, etc. And, whereas, the proposition to issue such bonds was not submitted to the legal voters of said city for their approval or rejection at the next annual city election, as provided by said act, but was submitted as hereinafter stated; and, whereas, under and pursuant to the provisions of section fifteen (15) of chapter twelve (12) of the special laws of the state of Minnesota for the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three (1883), the common council of the said city of St. Cloud was and is authorized and empowered to issue the further bonds of said city, in the amount of fifty thousand (50,000) dollars, for the purpose of aiding in the construction of a dam across the Mississippi river, at St. Cloud, and for the purpose of improving the water power of said river, at said city of St. Cloud, under the conditions and provisions set forth in said act, among which was that before it should be lawful for the said common council to issue any of said bonds by said act authorized, the proposition to issue the same should be submitted to the legal voters of said city for their approval or rejection at the next annual or any special election; and, whereas, the proposition to issue said further bonds of said city, and also a proposition to issue the bonds authorized by said chapter one hundred and thirty-eight (138) of the special laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine (1879), was each duly submitted to the legal voters of said city for their approval or rejection, in the manner and form provided by said acts, at a special election duly called and held on the fifteenth (15th) day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four (1884), and it was found upon a canvass, duly made, that a large majority of the voters of said city present and voting on said propositions at said election voted in favor of each of said propositions, and the common council was thereby duly empowered to issue the said further bonds of said city, as provided in said section fifteen (15) of chapter twelve (12) of the act of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three (1883), and by said vote was also duly authorized to issue the bonds authorized by said chapter one hundred and thirty-eight (138) of the special laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine (1879). Now, therefore, the submission of the proposition to issue the bonds authorized by said chapter one hundred and thirty-eight (138), special laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine (1879), at the said special election on January fifteen (15), one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four (1884), instead of at the time directed in said act, and the vote thereon be, and the same hereby are, in all respects legalized and confirmed; and the common council of said city are hereby authorized and empowered to issue said bonds, as well as the said further bonds of said city, pursuant to said votes, making in all the sum of one hundred thousand (100,000) dollars.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved January 28, 1885.
