

CHAPTER 225.

[S. F. No. 615.]

AN ACT TO FIX THE SALARY OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE AND PROVIDE FOR THE DISPOSITION OF THE FEES RECEIVED BY SAID OFFICE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota.

Salary of secretary of state.

SECTION 1. That the salary of the secretary of state for the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven (1887), and annually thereafter, shall be thirty-five hundred (3500) dollars.

Fees to be turned into state treasury.

SEC. 2. That subdivision two (2) of title one (1) of chapter seven (7) of the general statutes of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight (1878), be and the same is hereby amended by striking out all after the words, "secretary of state" and inserting the words, "is thirty-five hundred (3500) dollars per annum, which shall also include his salary for superintending the public printing," in lieu thereof.

SEC. 3. All fees and charges whatsoever hereafter paid into the office of the secretary of state, including all fees received by such officer during the months of January and February eighteen hundred and eighty-seven (1887) except fees for notary public appointment, which fees shall be paid to the private secretary of the governor from and after the passage of this act, and remain in force until January first (1st), eighteen hundred and eighty-nine (1889), shall be turned over to the state treasury; and it shall be the duty of the secretary of state to make monthly statements in detail to the state auditor of fees received, and to pay the same to the state treasurer according to such statement; Provided, that the fees so to be paid to the state treasurer, shall include all fees of whatever nature for every service rendered in said office, whether by the secretary, his assistant, or any clerk in the department.

When act to take effect.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 4, 1887.