

CHAPTER 260.

[H. F. No. 494.]

AN ACT TO DETACH CERTAIN TERRITORY FROM THE COUNTY OF MORRISON AND ATTACH THE SAME TO THE COUNTY OF CASS.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That all that part of Morrison county lying north of the north line of townships number one hundred (100) and thirty-one (31) be and the same is hereby detached from the county of Morrison and the same is hereby annexed and attached to the county of Cass. Boundary.

SEC. 2. This act shall be submitted to the electors of the county of Morrison at the next general election held after the passage of this act, and the qualified electors of the county of Morrison may, at such election, vote by ballot for or against the adoption of this act. Act to be submitted.

SEC. 3. That at the time of giving notice of the next general election held in the county of Morrison, it shall be the duty of the officers of each voting precinct in said county to give notice of the submission of this act to the electors of said county for their approval or disapproval; Provided, That a refusal or neglect to give such notice shall not invalidate such election. Notice of election.

SEC. 4. That at said election each voter of said county of Morrison in favor of adopting the provisions of this act shall have written or printed on his ballot "For the act detaching territory from Morrison county and attaching the same to Cass." Those opposed shall have written or printed on their ballots "Against the act detaching territory from Morrison county and attaching the same to Cass." Such votes shall be received and canvassed at the same time and in the same manner, and the returns thereof made by the judges of the election to the county canvassing board, as is required with reference to votes for county officers, and the county canvassing board shall canvass the same in the same manner as votes cast for county officers. Manner of voting.

SEC. 5. If, upon canvassing the votes aforesaid, it shall appear that the provisions of this act had been adopted by the voters of Morrison county, the territory so detached shall remain a part of Morrison county until such time as the adjoining territory of Cass county shall become organized; and when organized the territory detached from Morrison county by the provisions of this act shall be organized with such adjoining territory and become a part of such organized county. Effect of election.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage. When act to take effect.

Approved March 2, 1887.
