

vote] in favor of the issuing of bonds shall have written or printed or partly written and partly printed on their ballots the words "For the issue of bonds for railroad purposes, yes," and those voting against the issue of the bonds shall have written or printed or partly written and partly printed on their ballots "For the issuing of bonds for railroad purposes, no." The vote of which shall be returned and canvassed in the same manner as the votes for city officers, and if it appears from such canvass that a majority of the voters present and voting at such election have voted in favor of the issuance of such bonds then the city council of said city shall cause to be issued said bonds, which bonds shall be signed by the mayor and city clerk and countersigned by the comptroller and the principal and interest as they become due shall be payable to the person or corporation to whom they shall be issued or bearer, on presentation to the treasurer of said city.

Provided, That if the proposition to issue bonds is defeated the city council shall not call another election to vote upon the same proposition until the expiration of one (1) year after such proposition has been defeated.

SEC. 4. For the purpose of paying the principal and interest of said bonds said city council is hereby authorized and required to levy the necessary tax to pay the same as they shall become due.

SEC. 5. No bonds voted under the provisions of this act shall be issued or delivered until the railroad or railroads to which the same are voted shall be built and ready for operation into said city, if issued or delivered before such railroad or railroads shall be built and ready for operation into said city, then such bonds shall be null and void.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 7, 1887.

CHAPTER 160.

[H. F. No. 810.]

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF POPE COUNTY TO ISSUE BONDS OR ORDERS TO BUILD A JAIL AT GLENWOOD, THE COUNTY SEAT OF POPE COUNTY.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. The board of county commissioners of Pope county are hereby authorized to issue bonds or orders of the said county for the purpose of building a jail at the village of Glenwood, the county seat of said county, in the sum not exceeding ten thousand (10,000) dollars, and in such denominations as the said county commissioners may determine.

SEC. 2. Said bonds or orders shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding seven (7) per cent per annum, payable annually or semi-annually at such place as the said board of county commissioners shall direct, and the principal of said bonds or orders shall be payable at such time or times as the said board of county commissioners shall direct.

SEC. 3. The board of county commissioners of said Pope county shall annually levy and collect, in the same manner as other county taxes are levied and collected, in addition to all other taxes, an amount sufficient to pay the interest accruing upon said bonds or orders, and the principal as the same shall mature.

SEC. 4. The bonds or orders issued under the provisions of this act shall be signed by the chairman of the board of county commissioners and countersigned by the auditor of said county, and the said auditor shall keep a record of all bonds or orders issued under the provisions of this act, giving numbers, dates and amount, to whom issued and when payable.

SEC. 5. The board of county commissioners shall negotiate said bonds or orders as in their judgment shall be for the best interest of the county.

SEC. 6. The proposition to issue said bonds or orders shall be submitted to a vote of the electors of the several towns and villages in said county, at the next annual town meeting after the passage of this act, and it is hereby made the duty of the several town clerks and village recorders in said county to give notice in the same manner as notices of annual town meetings are by law required to be given, that said proposition shall be submitted to a vote of the electors at such town meeting and village election, which notices shall state substantially the amount of bonds or orders proposed to be raised; but the failure of any town clerk or village recorder to give notice as hereinbefore provided, shall not invalidate such election. Those voting in favor of said issue of bonds or orders shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed on the ballots used the words, "For issue of bonds or orders for jail," and those voting against the same the words, "Against issue of bonds or orders for jail." Said voting shall be conducted in the same manner as prescribed by law for the election of town officers, and the votes shall be counted, returned and canvassed in the same manner as votes cast for county officers, and if upon such canvass it appears that a majority of all the votes cast on said proposition shall be in favor of issuing said bonds, the board of county commissioners shall issue said bonds or orders as prescribed by this act, and the proceeds thereof shall be used in the erection of a county jail.

SEC. 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 26, 1887.