

SEC. 4. That before it shall be lawful for said board of supervisors to issue said bonds by this act authorized, the proposition to issue the same shall be submitted to the legal voters of said town for their approval or rejection at the annual town meeting of said town in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight (1888). In the case of the rejection of such proposition or failure to vote upon the same at said time, the same may be re-submitted at any future town meeting or at any general election within two (2) years thereafter; Provided, That notice of the re-submission of such proposition shall be given by said board of supervisors at least ten (10) days prior to the date when said proposition shall be voted upon, by conspicuously posting in three (3) of the most public places in said town a copy of such notice, signed by a majority of said supervisors, and by causing the same to be published in the official newspaper of said county, if there be one, in at least two (2) consecutive issues of said newspaper, immediately prior to the date of the vote upon the said proposition. The ballots used in voting upon said proposition shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed thereon the words, "For the issue of the Mississippi river bridge bonds—Yes," or, "For the issue of the Mississippi river bridge bonds—No." Said ballots shall be cast in the usual manner of casting ballots in said town, and shall be canvassed by the same officers as votes cast at elections in said town are canvassed; and if it be found upon such canvass that a majority of the voters present and voting upon such proposition, whenever the same shall be so submitted, have voted in favor of such proposition, then the issue of such bonds shall be lawful, and said bonds so issued shall be lawful to all intents and purposes.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 5, 1887.
