SECTION 1. That sections twenty-nine (29) and thirty (30), town one hundred and thirteen (113), range thirty-five (35), be detached from Independent School District number one (1) of Redwood county.

SEC. 2. Provided, That the scholars of schoolable age living in section twenty-nine (29) and section thirty (30) shall have the privilege of attending school in Independent District number one (1) until January the fourth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight (1888), without payment of tuition.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 16, 1887.

CHAPTER 276.

[H. F. No. 816.]

AN ACT TO AMEND SECTION THIRTEEN (13) OF CHAPTER NINE (9) OF THE SPECIAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA FOR THE YEAR EIGHTEEN HUNDRED AND SIXTY-NINE (1869), RELATING TO THE ST. CLOUD SCHOOL DISTRICT IN THE CITY OF ST. CLOUD.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section thirteen (13) of chapter nine (9) of the special laws of the state of Minnesota for the year eighteen hundred and sixty-nine (1869), be and the same hereby is amended so as to read as follows: .

Section 13. For the purpose of purchasing such grounds, site or sites and erecting and furnishing such school building or school buildings as the board of education of said St. Cloud school district may deem necessary, said board shall have power to levy a tax on all the taxable property of said district not exceeding in any one year two (2) mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation thereof; and shall have power, for such purposes, to issue the bonds of said district, at such times, in such amounts, for such length of time not exceeding ten (10) years from the respective dates thereof, and on such terms as to rate of interest and place and manner of payment as said board may determine, provided, that said rate of interest shall not exceed six (6) per cent. per annum, and provided, that the aggregate amount of such bonds outstanding at any one time shall not exceed the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), and provided further, that none of said bonds shall be issued unless a proposition to issue the same shall be approved by the legal voters of said district as hereinafter provided. Said bonds shall have interest coupons thereto attached and shall be signed by the president and clerk of said board, and said clerk shall keep a record in his office of all the bonds so issued, showing the number, date and amount of such bonds, the time when the same are payable and the name of the person or corporation in whose name the same are drawn, and said board shall have authority to negotiate the sale of said bonds or of any installment of the same in case more than one issue is made, in such manner as they deem for the best interest of said district, but shall not sell said bonds nor any of them at less than their par value. When said board of education deem it necessary to issue any of said bonds said board shall, by resolution, determine the amount and date of such bonds proposed to be then issued, and also the length of time after date that the same shall be payable and the rate of interest the same shall bear and whether such interest shall be payable annually or semi-annually. Such proposition may be submitted to the legal voters of said district for their approval or rejection at any annual or special election or meeting. The ballots used at such election shall have written or printed or partly written and partly printed thereon, the words, "for the issue of school district bonds, yes," or "for the issue of school district bonds, no." Said ballots shall be cast at said election in the usual manner of casting ballots at such elections, and shall be canvassed by the same officers and in the same manner that ballots cast at annual district elections are canvassed. If upon such canvass it be found that a majority of the voters present and voting on such proposition at said election have voted in favor of such proposition, it shall be lawful for said board to issue the bonds specified in such proposition; said board may submit such propositions whenever and as often as they deem necessary, and the notices of the election or meeting at which any such proposition is to be voted upon shall state that such proposition is to be voted upon and shall state the amount of bonds proposed to be issued in such proposition. Said board of education shall, at the time of levying taxes next after the date of any such bonds, and each and every year thereafter, at the time of levying taxes, until the payment of such bonds and interest is fully provided for, levy, and in due form certify to the auditor of the county or counties in which said district is situated, a tax upon the taxable property of said district, equal to the amount of principal and interest maturing next after such levy, and, in the discretion of said board, such further sum as it shall deem expedient not exceeding twenty (20) per cent. of such maturing bonds and interest, which taxes shall be paid in money, and shall constitute a fund for the payment of such bonds and the interest thereon.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 23, 1887.
