

nually from and after the issue of said bonds a sufficient tax on the taxable property of said township to pay the interest that shall become due upon said bonds for that year.

SEC. 5. The proposition to issue said bonds shall be submitted to a vote of the electors of said township at a special election held therein at the usual place of holding elections therein, at such time after the passage of this act as shall be designated by notice signed by the township clerk of said township, and posted in three of the most public places in said township.

The ballots to be voted at said election shall have written or printed or partly written and partly printed thereon the words, "In favor of issuing township bonds, Yes," or the words, "In favor of issuing township bonds, No."

And if a majority of the votes cast at said election are in favor of the issue of such bonds the board of supervisors of said township shall issue said bonds accordingly. If the majority of the votes so cast are against the issue of said bonds said bonds shall not be issued. Provided, that said bonds shall not be negotiated for a less sum than their par value.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 233.

[H. F. No. 769.]

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE VILLAGE COUNCIL OF THE VILLAGE OF APPLETON, IN SWIFT COUNTY, TO ISSUE BONDS FOR THE PURPOSE OF MAKING INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS, OR TO AID CERTAIN PUBLIC ENTERPRISES WITHIN SAID VILLAGE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That the village council of the village of Appleton in the county of Swift, be, and is hereby authorized to issue the bonds or orders of said village, with coupons attached for the purpose of making any internal improvements, or for the purpose of erecting a village hall, jail or other public buildings for the use of said village, or for the purpose of purchasing any such building for any of the purposes aforesaid, or for the purpose of aiding in the construction of any line of railway into or through said village, or aiding any other public enterprise within said village; said bonds to be issued in such amounts and at such periods, payable at such time or times and bearing interest at such rate, not exceeding eight (8) per cent per annum, as may be determined by two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the legal voters of said village, present and voting at any general election of said village; or at a special election of said village held for that purpose, as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. No such bonds or orders shall be issued by said village council unless the same shall have been first (1st) voted for, by two-thirds of the legal voters of said village present and voting at any annual village election, in the notices for which the proposition to issue such bonds or orders, the amount, terms and conditions thereof is specifically stated; or at a special village election held for that purpose, in the notices of which, the object for which the election was called shall be particularly specified, and the notices of which shall have been posted in at least three (3) public places in said village, for at least ten (10) days previous to such special election.

SEC. 3. The village council of said village may order any such special election, and shall by order prescribe the form of ballot to be used in voting upon the proposition to issue any such bonds or orders at such general or special election; and before any such bonds are issued, proof shall be filed with the recorder of the posting of notices of election hereinbefore provided for, by the affidavit of the person posting the same, which affidavit shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated.

SEC. 4. No bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be negotiated at less than their par value, and whenever any such bonds or orders are directed to be issued hereunder, the same shall be signed by the president of the village council of said village and countersigned by the recorder thereof. Said recorder shall also make a registration of such bonds or orders in a book to be kept for that purpose, showing the date, amount, number, maturity and rate of interest of each of said bonds or orders, and to whom the same are issued; and shall immediately transmit a copy of such registration to the auditor of said county to be by him entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, and each of such officers shall receive a fee of fifty cents (50 cts.) from the holders of each of such bonds or orders for so registering the same.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 15, 1889.
