CHAPTER 233.

[H. F. No. 631.]

AN ACT TO CONSTITUTE THE VILLAGE OF WALNUT GROVE, IN THE COUNTY OF REDWOOD, AN ELECTION DISTRICT SEPARATE FROM THE TOWNSHIP IN WHICH THE VILLAGE IS LOCATED.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

SECTION 1. The village of Walnut Grove, in the county of Redwood, is hereby established and constituted an election district separate and apart from the township in which it is located, for all purposes of general and special elections under the general election laws of the state; and the trustees of said village of Walnut Grove shall be and act as judges at all elections held in said village and district, and shall have power to appoint clerks of such elections and administer the necessary oaths. Such elections shall be held and conducted in the same manner and under the same penalties as prescribed by the general election laws of the state, and vacancies in the board of election shall be filled as required by said laws. The recorder of said village shall give notice of all elections in the same manner as required by law of town clerks; and the village council of said village shall perform all the duties pertaining to registry lists, and the appointment of the place where elections in the district are to be held, prescribed by the general election laws of the state relating to elections generally; Provided, that the village elections of the said village held for the election of village officers and for village purposes under and pursuant to the laws by which the said village is incorporated and governed, shall be called, held and managed in all ways as prescribed by said laws of incorporation.

SEC. 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 30, 1891.
