

H. F. No. 177.

CHAPTER 48.

Corporations,
religious.An act relating to religious corporations.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Minnesota:

Imperfect organization legalized.

SECTION 1. That in all cases in which an attempt has heretofore been made to organize a religious corporation under chapter one hundred and fifty-one general laws of Minnesota 1885, in which the attorney general has made a certificate and the same has been filed with the secretary of state in accordance with section three of said chapter, and in which attempt to form and organize such corporation there has been a failure to comply with the provisions of section two of said chapter, such corporations shall be and they are hereby legalized and confirmed in all respects as though there had been a full compliance with said chapter; and all rights, privileges and titles to property received and acquired by such bodies are hereby confirmed and established in such corporation.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 17, 1893.

S. F. No. 134.

CHAPTER 49.

Corporations.

An act to legalize, in certain cases, proceedings for extending the period of corporate existence.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Minnesota:

Extending corporate existence.

SECTION 1. That in any case where a corporation created by the laws of this state shall, within the period of its corporate existence as originally defined, have heretofore initiated proceedings authorized by law for the extension of its corporate existence, and said proceedings have been regularly taken and consummated, except that the original period of corporate existence had expired prior to the making of the newspaper publication of the resolution or amendatory articles in that behalf required by law, the said proceedings are hereby legalized, and declared as valid as though such publication had been made before the original corporate term had expired.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 19, 1893.
