CHAPTER 97.

State board of health.

An act to amend sections one and three of chapter fifteen of the general laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, relating to the appointment of the members of the State Board of Health and Vital Statistics, and the management of its business.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Minnesota:

Amendment 16 of general laws of 1872.

SECTION 1. That section one of chapter fifteen of the General Laws of the state of Minnesota for the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Reorganization of board.

Section 1. There shall be a state board of health and vital statistics to be appointed by the governor as hereinafter stated. The term of office of all the present members of the said board of health and vital statistics shall terminate on the first day of January, A. D. 1894, and on that day, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the governor shall proceed to appoint a new board, consisting of nine members, three of whom shall be appointed to serve for a term of one year, three of whom shall be appointed to serve for a term of two years, and three of whom shall be appointed to serve for a term of three years; and thereafter the governor shall appoint on the first day of January of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, three members of said board who shall serve for a term of three years. And in case of any vacancy occurring in the board by death, resignation or otherwise, the governor shall immediately supply such vacancy by appointment, to serve for the unexpired term.

SEC. 2. That section three of said chapter fifteen be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 3. The board shall hold regular meetings at the capitol building in St. Paul on the second Tuesday in January, April, July and October in each year, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and such special meetings as the secretary shall deem necessary. They shall elect from their own number the following named officers, to-wit: a president and permanent secretary.

The secretary shall be the executive officer of the board, and shall be entitled to such compensation, in addition to that now provided by law, as the board in their discretion may deem necessary; provided, that in case of the absence from the state of the secretary of the board, or in case of his inability for other cause to discharge the executive duties of said office, then and in such case the president of said board shall act as the executive officer of said board during the absence of said secretary, and the board may allow the president such compensation for his services as they may deem reasonable; and the said board may appoint such quarantine officers, inspectors, assistants and other agents as they may deem necessary.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 17, 1893.
