

CHAPTER 131.

S. F. No. 413.

An act to prohibit certain city and county officers from holding any other office during the term for which they were elected or appointed.

Prohibiting certain officers holding any other office.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person hereafter elected to any of the following offices, that is to say, the office of councilman, assemblyman or alderman in any city, or the office of county commissioner in any county in this state, to hold any other office in such city or county during the term for which he was elected or appointed, except an office elective by the people in the district wherein he shall have resided thirty days previous to such election.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 16, 1897.

CHAPTER 132.

S. F. No. 489.

An act to legalize and regulate cremation.

Cremation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. It shall be lawful for any and all cemetery associations in the state of Minnesota to dispose of the dead bodies of human beings by cremation when such disposition is desired by the relatives of the deceased, or other persons legally entitled to dispose of such bodies.

Lawful for cemetery associations.

SEC. 2. Every such association shall, before receiving any such body for cremation, erect, establish, equip and maintain on some part of portion of its grounds a suitable crematory for such purpose.

Suitable crematory.

SEC. 3. The actuary or secretary of such association shall keep in its "Register of Burials" a separate list and record of all cremations in like manner as required by law in cases of interment, and shall be subject to the same penalties for neglect to keep such record.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 16, 1897.
