

CHAPTER 47.

H. F. No. 358.

An act relating to the spread of disease among swine.

Disease among swine.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the owner, or of any other person having in charge any swine that have died of any disease, immediately upon the fact of such death by disease coming to his knowledge, to bury the same at least three (3) feet below the surface of the ground, or burn the same so that the carcass is consumed. No person shall sell, give away or offer for sale any swine that have died of any disease, or have been killed on account of any disease. No person shall convey upon or along any public highway, or other public ground, or any private land, except his own, any diseased swine, or swine that have died of or have been slaughtered on account of any disease. It shall be unlawful for any person negligently or wilfully to allow his hogs or those under his control afflicted with any disease to escape his control and run at large.

Duty of owner.

SEC. 2. Any person convicted of a violation of this act shall be fined in any sum not less than ten (10) nor more than one hundred (100) dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed thirty (30) days.

Penalty.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 12, 1897.

CHAPTER 48.

S. F. No. 291.

An act authorizing and conferring perpetual succession upon corporations organized for the purpose of operating private cemeteries and crematories, and providing for a perpetual care and improvement fund.

Cemetery corporations, perpetual succession.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. Any corporation hereafter formed pursuant to the provisions of title two (2), chapter thirty-four (34) of the general statutes of eighteen hundred ninety-four (1894), which in its articles of incorporation shall declare its sole purpose to be the procuring and holding of lands to be used exclusively for a private cemetery, under the general laws of the state of Minnesota, relating to "Private Cemeteries," and the pro-
