CHAPTER 343.

An act to amend chapter forty-six (46) General Laws of 1889, being an act entitled, "An act to establish a probate code," and being chapter forty-five (45) a, General Statutes 1894.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. Title eleven of chapter forty-six (46) of General Laws of 1889 is hereby amended by adding the following section immediately after section two hundred and twenty-six (226) of said chapter, to-wit:

Section 226 A. Where an executor or administrator has been discharged and by indvertence, oversight, neglect or other cause, no final decree assigning the residue of the estate has ever been entered, an heir, devisee, legatee or any party claiming through or under them may petition the probate court for the assignment of the residue of the estate to the persons entitled thereto by law, the court shall make an order for hearing such petition, and the same shall be published according to law; if it appear upon such hearing that such decree should be entered the court shall upon satisfactory evidence determine the rights of the persons to the residue of said estate and shall make a decree accordingly, assigning said residue to the persons entitled thereto.

Such decree shall be entered in the manner and form prescribed by section two hundred and twenty-nine (229) of this act and shall have like force and effect.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 20th, 1899.
