CHAPTER 100.

Admission of attorneys to the bar.

An act relating to the admission to the bar of attorneys and counsellors at law.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Graduate of law college within state.

SECTION 1. That any graduate of any college of law, duly incorporated under the laws of this state, or established by authority of the laws of this state and located therein, and incorporated or so established, for the exclusive purpose of giving instruction in the science of jurisprudence, which requires as a prerequisite to admission thereto at least a high school education or its equivalent and affords to its graduates not less than a course of three years' study of the principles and practice of the law under the tuition of a corps of not less than ten competent and experienced instructors in active attendance upon such college; and which college and its corps of instructors and course of instruction shall have first received the written approval of the supreme court as being in compliance with the terms of this act, by a certificate filed in the office of the clerk of said court, shall, upon presentation of his diploma from such college to the supreme court, or any district court of this state, at any time within two years from the date of such diploma, be entitled to a certificate of admission to the bar, without any examination or fee whatever; and such court shall thereupon enter an order authorizing and directing the clerk of said court to issue to such graduate a certificate of admission to the bar, upon the production of a certified copy of the order aforesaid (except when such diploma is presented to the supreme court), and upon proof satisfactory to said court that such graduate is a citizen of the United States, a citizen and resident of the State of Minnesota, that he is twenty-one years of age and of good moral character, and upon his subscribing such oath as is now provided by statute for persons upon their admission to the bar.

Qualifications of college.

Admission by diploma without examination or fee.

Revocation of certificate, when.

SEC. 2. Such certificate of approval may be revoked by said supreme court at any time, by an order to that effect filed with its said clerk when, in the opinion of said court, the college receiving the same shall no longer be worthy of the benefits thereof, and thereafter the diploma of such college shall cease to have the effect above provided. Every certified copy of such order of approval shall contain a statement that such order remains unrevoked so long as such is the case, and no certified copy of any such order of approval shall be furnished after such order shall have been revoked.

SEC. 3. This act shall not be construed as repealing, modifying or in any way affecting any of the provisos to section 7 of chapter 36 of the General Laws of Minnesota 1891, as amended by chapter 60 of the General Laws of 1899.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 28, 1901.
