CHAPTER 170.

University.
Free tuition for graduate of school for the blind.

An act to provide for the free education in the University of Minnesota, and in either of the several courses thereof, without expense for tuition, of any graduate, resident of the State of Minnesota, from the department known as the School for the Blind, connected with the Minnesota Institute for Defectives.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That any person resident of the State of Minnesota who has already graduated or may graduate from the department known as the School for the Blind, connected with the Minnesota Institute for Defectives (located at Faribault, Minnesota, or elsewhere in said state), shall upon complying with all other requirements be entitled to pursue any course or courses in the University of Minnesota without expense for tuition.

SEC. 2. It is hereby made the duty of the board of regents of the University of Minnesota to receive into any college, school or department thereof, and to furnish to him or her training and education in any such college, school or department, any student who comes within the definition of section one of this act, without any charge to said student for tuition.

SEC. 3. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 9th, 1901.
