

Tax levy against territory acquired.

proper officers of the municipality, or municipalities, which acquire the territory of the dissolved municipality, to levy such tax or taxes upon the property and territory coming within its or their jurisdiction, by reason of such repeal. for the payment or discharge of such outstanding indebtedness, and to collect, receive and apply the same in such payment of such indebtedness in practically the same manner as would have been the duty of the proper officers of the dissolved municipality to levy taxes for the payment of said indebtedness, and to collect, receive and disburse the same, had there been no repeal of said charter or special law. And the territory so attached to such municipality or municipalities shall not be liable for any of the debts of such municipality or municipalities existing at the time of the repeal of said charter or special law, but all such debts shall continue a demand solely against the municipality or territory which was liable for the payment of the same at the time of said repeal.

Provided.

SEC. 2. This act shall apply to all cases falling within its provisions in which judgment has not already been recovered by the owner or holder of such bonds, or other forms of indebtedness as are described in section one of this act, against the municipality or municipalities acquiring the territory of the dissolved municipality.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 10th, 1901.

CHAPTER 202.

Amendment.
Township elections in village limits.

An act to amend section one (1) of chapter two hundred and thirty-nine (239) of the General Laws of 1897, the same being an act to permit voters of any township in this state to hold their elections within an incorporated village when such village is located in said township.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section one (1) of chapter two hundred and thirty-nine (239) of the General Laws of 1897 be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 1. That whenever a majority of the legal voters of any township in this state shall petition the board of supervisors of such town to change the place of holding elections from where last held to an incorporated village located within such town, then said supervisors may procure a suitable hall or building in such village where the voters of such township shall hold their election; provided, however, that such hall or building or place for holding such elections shall be at least seventy-five (75) feet from the place where the voters of such village hold their elections.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 10th, 1901.

CHAPTER 203.

S. F. No. 345.

An act relating to the deposit of public funds.

Deposit of public funds.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. When the surety upon the duly approved bond of a national, state or private bank, heretofore or hereafter designated, as provided by law, to receive the deposit of public moneys belonging to any county, city, village or school district, is a corporation, duly authorized by the law of this state to become such surety, the treasurer of such county, city, village or school district may deposit in such designated depository any sum up to but not exceeding the amount of such bond given by such bank; provided, that the amount deposited in any bank or banking house shall not exceed the assessed capital stock of such bank or banking house, as the same shall appear on the tax list of the county.

Capital stock, for the purposes of this act, shall be limited and defined, and the amount thereof ascertained, as provided in chapter three hundred and twenty-three (323) of the General Laws of the year eighteen hundred and ninety-seven (1897).

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.
