H. F. No. 65.

An act to regulate the marriage of persons having been divorced and the issuing of marriage licenses to such persons.

Marriage of divorced persons.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to enter into matrimony in the State of Minnesota who has been divorced in any court within six months from the entry of such divorce decree. Any person applying for a license to marry within the State of Minnesota, and making oath as required by law as to legal impediments, such person swearing falsely as to divorce obtained shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished according to the statute in such case made and provided for the crime of perjury.

SEC. 2. It shall be unlawful for any clerk of court, or deputy clerk of court in the State of Minnesota to issue any marriage license to any person having obtained a decree of divorce within six months from the date of the entry of such divorce decree. Any clerk of court or deputy clerks of court, having authority to issue such marriage license, failing to diligently endeavor to ascertain under oath, if such person applying for a license to marry or either of the contracting parties, have been divorced within six months prior to the application for such license shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than fifty ($50.00) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars, or be confined in the county jail not to exceed ninety (90) days or both, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from after its passage.

Approved April 10, 1901.
