CHAPTER 238.

Amendment.
Contagious diseases.

An act to amend section twenty-nine (29) of chapter one hundred and thirty-two (132) of the General Laws of Minnesota for the year eighteen hundred and eighty-three (1883), as amended.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section twenty-nine (29) of the General Laws of Minnesota for the year eighteen hundred and eighty-three (1883), as amended, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 29. It shall hereafter be the duty of the chairman of any county, incorporated town, borough, town or village board of health which has heretofore incurred or shall hereafter incur expenses for the control of infectious or contagious diseases in any such town or village to present a statement thereof, giving the name and address, so far as possible, of each person cared for, duly verified to the county auditor of the county in which such county, incorporated town, borough, town or village is situated, and thereupon it shall be the duty of such county auditor to place the same before the board of county commissioners at their first meeting thereafter; and it shall thereupon be the duty of the same board of county commissioners to audit the said statement, or so much thereof as the said board shall determine to be just and proper. Whenever any board of county commissioners shall disallow any such statement, or any part thereof, it shall be the duty of the county auditor of such county, within ten days thereafter, to notify, in writing, the chairman of the county, incorporated town, borough, town or village board of health, as the case may be, of such disallowance, and such chairman may thereupon, within thirty days after the receipt of such notice, file with the clerk of court a notice of appeal from the action of the said board to the district court. When such notice of appeal shall have been filed with the clerk of the court, as aforesaid, the said clerk shall place the appeal upon the calendar of actions for the ensuing term of the district court. The court at such term shall fix a day for the hearing of such appeal, and cause notice thereof to be served upon the chairman of the town or village board of health, as the case may be. The said chairman may appear in person or by counsel at the trial thereof. The court shall render judgment as justice shall require regardless of the action of said board of county commissioners. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the court to issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses when requested so to do, in writing, by the said chairman. No bond shall be required of the board of health taking the appeal herein provided. All expenses incident to such appeal shall be allowed by the court and paid out of the county treasury. When the board of county commissioners shall audit such statement, or any part thereof, the said statement shall be paid out of the county treasury by orders on the treasurer, drawn by the county auditor, and paid out of the general rev-

Local boards of health to make statements of expenses to county auditors.

If account disallowed, appeal to court.

Judgment of court regardless action of county board

enue fund of the county, as other claims against the county are paid.

Tax levy.

All such expenses incurred by any city board of health shall in the first instance be borne by and paid out of the city treasury. The proper authorities of said city shall certify the amount required to reimburse said city to the county auditor at the time of certifying other taxes, and such auditor shall extend on the tax list of the county a tax sufficient to pay the same so certified, which tax shall be collected as other taxes, and paid over to the treasurer of such city.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 11, 1901.

CHAPTER 239.

County board of health.

An act creating a county board of health and defining the duties and powers of such board.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Organization
and compensation.

SECTION 1. That each organized county in this state may have a board of health, who shall have and exercise all the powers necessary for the preservation of the public health, and who shall hold regular monthly meetings.

SEC. 2. Said board shall consist of not less than three members, one of whom, when practicable, shall be a physician, and such physician shall be the health officer and ex officio president of the board, and shall receive such compensation for his services as the board of county commissioners of such county shall determine.

The remaining members of such board shall be elected by the board of county commissioners from their own number at the first regular or special meeting of the board of county commissioners held after this act takes effect, and annually thereafter at the first regular or special meeting of such board of county commissioners held after the first day of January in each year. Each member of such county board of health shall hold office after his election thereto until his successor is elected and qualifies.

Jurisdiction
and authority.

SEC. 3. Such county board of health shall have jurisdiction and authority over all unorganized townships in such county, and within the limits of such unorganized township the duties and powers of said county board of health shall be the same as the duties and powers of boards of health as prescribed by sections 1463 and 1464 of
