CHAPTER 287.

S. F. No. 421.

An act to further regulate the sale of intoxicating liquors in certain cases.

Regulating sale of intoxicating liquors.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That the county commissioners, city or village council or other governing body of any municipal corporation having the power under the laws of this state to grant license to sell any kind of intoxicating liquors in quantities less than five gallons, shall also have the power to prohibit the sale, barter or gift of any liquors by the holder of any such license, directly or indirectly to any habitual drunkard, spendthrift or improvident person who has a wife or family or others depending upon him for support, when it satisfactorily appears that by reason of intemperate habits or improvidence in spending his money for such liquors, such person or his family are likely to become a public charge. And whenever any order forbidding such sale is violated or evaded by any licensed liquor seller the person violating the same shall forfeit his license.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 13, 1901.
