CHAPTER 333.

Amendment.
Prevent
adulteration of honey.

An act to amend chapter twenty-one (21), General Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-three (1893), entitled "An act in relation to the sale of honey compounded or adulterated, and to prevent fraud and to preserve the public health."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section six (6) of chapter twenty-one (21) of the General Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-three (1893), entitled "An act in relation to the sale of honey compounded or adulterated, and to prevent fraud and to preserve the public health," be and is hereby amended to read as follows:

"The said commissioner and his assistants, experts, chemists and others by him appointed, shall have access, ingress and egress to all places of business and buildings where the same is kept for sale. They shall also have power and authority to open any package, car or vessel containing such articles which may be manufactured, sold or exposed for sale in violation of the provisions of this act, and may inspect the contents therein, and take samples therefrom for analyses. All clerks, bookkeepers, express agents, railroad agents or officials, employes or common carriers, or other persons, shall render them all the assistance in their power, when so requested, in tracing, finding or discovering the presence of any prohibited article named in this act. Any neglect or refusal on the part of such clerk, bookkeeper, express agent, railroad agents, employes, or common carriers to render such friendly aid, shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five (25) dollars, or more than fifty (50) dollars for each and every offense, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty (30) days or more than sixty (60) days.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 13, 1901.
