

H. F. No. 537.

CHAPTER 58.

Judge of Probate.
Salary.

An act to fix the salary of the judge of probate in counties having a population exceeding fifteen thousand, wherein the salary of the judge of probate is arbitrarily fixed by special law at eight hundred dollars or less, per annum, and wherein there are no provisions for probate court clerk hire, and to repeal inconsistent acts.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That in any county in the state having a population of not less than fifteen thousand wherein the salary of the judge of probate is arbitrarily fixed at eight hundred dollars, or less, per annum, and wherein there are no provisions for clerk hire in the probate court of such county, the salary of the judge of probate is hereby fixed at twelve hundred dollars per annum.

SEC. 2. All acts and parts of acts, general or special, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 16, 1901.

CHAPTER 59.

Amendment Administrators.

An act to amend section seventy five (75) of chapter forty-six (46) of the General Laws of 1889, being section 4482 of the General Statutes of 1894, relating to bonds of administrators and neglect of administrators to qualify.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section seventy-five (75) of chapter forty-six (46) of the General Laws of 1889, the same being section 4482 of the General Statutes of 1894, be amended so as to read as follows:

Bond same as Executor.

Every administrator except such as are expressly exempt by statu[t]e, before he enters upon the execution of his trust, and before letters of administration are granted him, shall give a bond to the judge of probate in such reasonable sum as he may direct with sufficient sureties to be approved by the probate court, with substantially the same conditions as required in case of an executor as provided in section fifty-one (51) with such variations as are necessary to make it applicable to the case of an administrator. When two or more persons shall be appointed administrators of any estate, the probate court may
