CHAPTER 89.

Relief of ex-State
Treasurer
Bobleter.

An act to extend the provisions of Chapter 140, General Laws of 1901, to former State Treasurer Joseph Bobleter, and to release him from certain technical liability, and to refund to him the sum of fifteen hundred dollars paid thereon.

Whereas, By its report, dated December 18, 1901, the commission appointed by the governor under chapter 212, General Laws of 1899, found that a balance of six thousand dollars ($6,000), exclusive of interest, remained due to the state upon the liability of Joseph Bobleter, former state treasurer, arising from the insolvency of certain state depositories in which the money of the state was by said treasurer deposited; and said commission thereupon determined to accept, on behalf of the state, the sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000) in settlement of such liability; and said Joseph Bobleter has paid the sum of fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) on account thereof; and
