CHAPTER 152.

An act to provide for holding meetings of stockholders of corporations which have failed or neglected to hold annual meetings as provided by law.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Meeting of stockholders.

SECTION 1. Whenever any corporation organized under the laws of this state shall have failed or neglected to hold its annual meeting for two consecutive years, a meeting of the stockholders thereof may be called in any manner as follows, viz. : A notice signed by stockholders holding one-third of the stock in such corporation, stating the time and place of holding such meeting, shall be published in a newspaper printed and published in the county where the principal office of such corporation is.

Service of notice.

SEC. 2. Such notice shall also be served at least ten days prior to the date of such meeting, upon the president or secretary of such corporation by the sheriff of the county in which the principal office of such corporation is located, if he can be found in such county, and the return of the sheriff thereto shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

SEC. 3. The notice heretofore provided for shall be published at least once each week for two consecutive weeks, and a period of at least ten days must elapse between the date of the last publication of such notice and the meeting of the stockholders.

Notice by publication.

SEC. 4. At any stockholder's meeting of a corporation called pursuant to the provisions of this act, one-third of the stockholders of such corporation shall constitute a quorum, notwithstanding any provisions in the by-laws or articles of incorporation of such corporation to the contrary.

Quorum.

SEC. 5. All acts, or parts of acts, inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.
