

H. F. No. 62.

CHAPTER 206.

Blind
pigs.

An act to amend chapter 252 of the General Laws of 1901, entitled an act to prohibit so-called "blind pigs," and other places and devices for keeping, selling or using intoxicating liquors contrary to law; to abolish the practice of handling intoxicating liquors under false and fictitious names; and to effect the confiscation of intoxicating liquor unlawfully handled, together with the appliances used in such unlawful handling of intoxicating liquors.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section 1. of chapter 252 of the General Laws of the State of Minnesota for the year 1901 be amended so as to read as follows:

Every person who shall directly or indirectly keep or maintain, by himself or by associating or combining with others, or who shall in any manner aid, assist or abet in keeping or maintaining any blind pig, or other room or rooms, place or places in which intoxicating liquors are received or kept for unlawful use, barter or sale as a beverage or for unlawful distribution or division among the members of any club or association by any means whatever, within the limits of any township, village, city or county which has voted against granting license to sell intoxicating liquors, or whereby municipal charter or ordinance or by state law the sale of intoxicating liquor is forbidden; and every person who shall receive, barter, sell, assist, or abet another in receiving, bartering or selling any intoxicating liquors so received or kept, and every person who, as agent, or as owner, lets any building or any premises, or any portion of any building or premises, knowing that it is intended to be used for any purpose specified in this section, or any person who permits any building or premises, or any portion of any building or premises, to be so used, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished as hereinafter set forth.

SEC. 3. Any acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 14, 1903.
