

For making and entering an order on the same, fifty (50) cents. For passing and deciding on the return of a writ of habeas corpus, three (3) dollars for each day necessarily occupied in the hearing of the same. For each examination for the commitment of insane persons the sum of five dollars ($5.00). For all examinations of judgment debtors in proceedings supplementary to execution and for all disclosures in garnishment proceedings committed in writing at the rate of fifteen (15) cents per folio of one hundred words so committed to writing. For all other services rendered by them, the same fees as are allowed by law to other officers for similar services.

SEC. 2. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. This act to take effect and be in force from and after Jan. 1st, 1905.

Approved April 17, 1903.

H. F. No. 794.

CHAPTER 256.

Limited
partnership.

An act amending chapter 30 of the general statutes of 1866, relating to limited partnership.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section twelve of chapter thirty of the general statutes of 1866 (the same being section 2341 of the general statutes of 1894) be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Dissolution
defined.

Sec. 12. Every alteration which is made in the names of the parties, in the nature of the business, or in the capital or shares thereof, or in any other matter specified in the original certificate, shall be deemed a dissolution of the partnership; and every such partnership which in any manner is carried on after any such alteration is made, shall be deemed a general partnership unless renewed as a special partnership according to the provisions of the last section; provided, however, anything in this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding, that any alteration heretofore or hereafter made by death in the membership of a limited partnership established under the provisions of this chapter, shall not be deemed to be and shall not work a dissolution of such partnership, in any case where the contract under which it was formed provides partnership.

General

Death not deemed to be and shall not work a dissolution,
in certain cases.

to the effect, that the business thereof shall or may be carried on after any such death or deaths by one or more of the surviving general partners, during or until the end of the period of duration specified in the original certificate of its formation; and that in any and every such case the carrying on of such partnership or the business thereof, after an alteration in the membership thereof so caused, shall not operate to convert said limited partnership into a general partnership, nor to create or establish a partnership between the surviving general and special partner or partners thereof; nor shall any surviving special partner, or the estate of any deceased special partner become or be liable for any debt or debts hereafter contracted in so carrying on said partnership or its business in any such case; and provided further that it shall be competent and lawful to provide in a contract for the formation of a limited partnership under the provisions of this chapter, that the partnership business shall or may be carried on by the surviving general partner or partners after the death of any one or more of the general or special partners therein, and until the expiration of the period specified in the original certificate of its formation; and that all such contracts heretofore or hereafter made are hereby confirmed and made valid and binding on all the parties thereto.

Liability
as to special partners.

Surviving
general
partners.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and approval.

Approved April 18, 1903.

CHAPTER 257.

II. F. No. 748.

An act to amend section four (4) of chapter one hundred and seventy-six (176) General Laws of 1897; being an act to provide against the manufacture, adulteration or sale of spices and condiments; to prevent fraud and preserve the public health.

Adulterated
spices.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section four (4) of chapter one hundred and seventy-six (176) General Laws of 1897 be amended to read as follows:

Every person or firm or corporation manufacturing for sale, offering or exposing for sale, or sells or deliv-