

CHAPTER 323.

S. F. No. 457.

An act relating to salaries and clerk hire of judges of probate in counties organized prior to April 1st, 1853, and having more than 20,000 inhabitants and less than 25,000 inhabitants, where the salary of the judge of probate is fixed by special law.

Salaries
and clerk hire of probate
judges.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That in all counties in this state, organized by statute prior to April first, 1853, containing a population of more than twenty thousand (20,000) inhabitants and less than twenty-five thousand (25,000) inhabitants, in which the salary of the judge of probate is fixed by special law, under the terms of which no allowance is made to such judge of probate for clerk hire, postage, stationery or otherwise, the board of county commissioners are hereby authorized to make an allowance to the said judge of probate for postage and stationery as shall be necessary in his office. The said board of county commissioners are further authorized to make an allowance to such judge of probate, for clerk hire, of a reasonable sum, not to exceed six hundred dollars ($600.00) per annum, which allowance when so made, shall be paid to such judge of probate for all clerk hire, and for the services of all clerks employed by such judge of probate. The county auditor shall issue his warrants for said allowance to such judge of probate, and the same shall be paid monthly as other salaries are paid.

In counties
of more than 20,000
and less than 25,000
inhabitants.

Not to exceed $600
per annum.

SEC. 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 21, 1903.
