CHAPTER 54.

An act to amend section two hundred and fifty-seven (257) of chapter forty-six (46) of the General Laws of one thousand eight hundred and eighty nine (1889), being an act establishing a probate code.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section two hundred and fifty-seven (257) of chapter forty-six (46) of the General Laws of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine (1889), be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 257. Such appeal shall suspend the operations of the order, judgment or decree appealed from, and stay proceedings until such appeal is determined or the district court, to which such appeal is taken, shall otherwise order. The district court in which such appeal may be pending, shall have power in the exercise of a sound discretion, upon good cause shown, to require the appellant to give such further bond with surety, or such further security, to be filed or deposited with the clerk of such district court, for the payment of damages, in consequence of such suspension or stay which may be awarded against such appellant, in case he fail to obtain a reversal of the order, judgment or decree so appealed from, as such district court may deem proper under the circumstances; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to prohibit or prevent the probate court from appointing special administrators or special guardians, or to prevent special administrators or special guardians appointed prior to such appeal from continuing to act as such special administrator or special guardian.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 14, 1903.
