CHAPTER 234.

S. F. No. 186.

An act to amend section one hundred and twenty-one (121) of chapter forty-six (46) of the General Laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-nine (1889), being section 4528 of the General Statutes of 1894, relating to the payment of debts and legacies of deceased persons.

Payment of debts and legacies of deceased.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section one hundred and twenty-one (121) of chapter forty-six (46) of the General Laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-nine (1889), the same being section 4528 of the General Statutes of 1894, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 121. In case there is sufficient assets in the hands of the executor or administrator for that purpose he shall proceed to pay all the debts and legacies of the deceased in full. When a legacy is contingent on the event of the legatee living to a certain age and the testator has omitted to appoint any person or persons to receive and hold said legacy until the legatee arrives at the prescribed age, the probate court may appoint some discreet person to act as trustee, who, upon giving a bond, as hereinafter prescribed, shall receive, invest and control said legacy, and the income thereof until the legatee shall arrive at the age prescribed in the last will and testament of the testator, or in case of the death of said legatee before arriving at said age, said legacy shall be disposed of according to the provisions of the last will and testament of the testator.

Legacy contingent.

Probate court may appoint trustee, in certain case.

Trustee's
bond, accounting.

Said trustee shall before entering upon the duties of his trust give a bond to the judge of probate with sufficient sureties in such sum as the judge of probate shall direct, conditioned that said trustee will faithfully execute the duties of his trust and will render a just and true account of his trusteeship to the probate court at any time when required by said court; that he will perform all orders and decrees of the probate court to be by him performed in the premises, and that when the legatee arrives at the prescribed age he will pay to said legatee the amount of said legacy and the income thereof, or in case of the death of said legatee before arriving at such age, that he will pay said legacy and the income thereof to the person or persons designated in the last will and testament of the testator as being entitled thereto.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 17, 1905.
